

Demetris Neokleous

Distopia XXI

Research paintings

Color pulse, pulse of the lines is the guideline for creating a painted system of landscapes describing a fantastic three-dimensional, dream-like or nightmarish setting, A system of ideas, drafts (a preplanning of the future) through a repetition of an "urban" form. Influenced by grey colours describe the foggy pulse of a machine, embodying personal and political stories that reveal ephemeral "sacredness".

